DETAILED ACTION

Applicants' arguments, filed 3/24/04, have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.

NONSTATUTORY SUBJECT MATTER

Claims 1-3, 7-27, and 31-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

This rejection is reiterated and maintained from the previous office action, mailed 12/24/03. Applicants are that the instant claims are directed a practical application within the technological arts as also exemplified in examples of statutory vs. non-statutory subject matter. Consideration of the instant claims indicates, firstly that the method is directed to analyzing a library as set forth in the preamble of claim 1, for example, as well as noted before, in the actual claim steps wherein a library is enumerated but not physically produced or even filtered as to actual compound manipulations. Only data is manipulated in the instant claims. Thus the claims still are directed to non-statutory subject matter.

No claim is allowed.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1631

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
